A diagram showing a 4x4 grid of cells. The top row contains the number 29 in the first cell and 0 in the second cell. The second row contains 1 in the first cell, 1 in the second cell, 2 in the third cell, and 2 in the fourth cell. The third row contains 0 in the first cell, 2 in the second cell, 3 in the third cell, and 0 in the fourth cell. The fourth row contains 0 in the first cell, 2 in the second cell, 3 in the third cell, and 0 in the fourth cell. Below the grid, there are four groups of symbols: a dot and an equals sign, a vertical line, a vertical line, and a vertical line.
