I realize this is an extremely fast piece to play, especially on the guitar, so I suggest if you want to even attempt to learn it to slow the tempo WAY down. I am not a skilled enough guitarist, (yet), to accomplish such a song, so if there is anyone who can play this song, let me know! Also, there are many parts in this song where the notes reach higher than the 12th fret, so you may have problems with this song unless you play it on an electric guitar, although it could be done on an acoustic. If you have any comments or could improve this arrangement in any way, feel free to let me know.
